

Madison APICS
Professional Development Meeting
Tuesday, May 15th
5:30 - 7:30 p.m.

In This Issue

Message from the Board 2

SCWI APICS
Spring
Seminar 3

2007 APICS International Conference 5

Produced by

Please join us for a presentation on Negotiation: Experience from the Field. Mr. Purtell has nearly 30 years of professional experience at the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Mr. Purtell is an expert on Negotiation and Crisis Management. During his time with the FBI he lead the Critical Incident Response Group (CIRG) and trained multiple government agencies on special topics, including negotiation. Learn from his experience on how you and your company can benefit from his vast experience in high-level negotiation, including:

- Managing response to kidnapping of American citizens
- Crisis Management and Negotiation training for Government Authorities in South America, Asia, the Middle East, and Europe
- Organize US response to terrorist actions
- Led training of US Military and Government Agencies dealing with terrorist threats
- Consultant to the History Channel on International Kidnapping and Terrorism
- In 1981 Mr. Purtell was one the first FBI agents trained as a Criminal Profiler
- In 1994, Mr. Purtell was named the FBI Police trainer of the year

Since his retirement, Mr. Purtell has managed the investigative consulting agency Madison Research Associates, which provides training, investigations and consulting to Government and the Private sector.

Timeline: 5:30 - Meet & Greet
6:00 - Dinner
6:30 - 7:30 - Presentation

Location: Wolf Appliance LLC
2866 Bud's Drive
Fitchburg, WI 53719

Please RSVP by noon on 5/11/07 by contacting Carol Aspinwall at caspinwall@engr.wisc.edu or on line at www.madisonapics.org. Cost: $20 for members and non-members, and $10 for students.

Board of Directors

Carol Aspinwall,
President
UW-Madison College of Engineering
608-265-9171
caspinwall@enr.wisc.edu

Harley Ringhand, CPIM
Past President/Education
Morris Material Handling
608-846-8630 ext. 14
hiringhand@morriscranes.com

Adam Barnes, CPA
Treasurer/Web
Grant Thornton, LLP
608-286-7004
adam.barnes@gt.com

Michael Schaller, CPA
Publications
Virchow, Krause & Company
608-240-2658
mschaller@virchowkrause.com

Don Peters
Programs/President Elect
Sub Zero Wolf
608-441-5916
donald.peters@subzero.com

Scott Bucklin, CPIM
Member at Large
GM-Janesville
ssbucklin@aol.com

Andrew Pulvermacher
Marketing
Cuna Mutual Group
608-231-8309
andy.pulvermacher@cunamutual.com

Kathy Smathers, CPIM
Region 14 Rep/Education
Fiskars, Garden & Outdoor Living
608-643-2380 ext. 2108
ksmathers@fiskars.com

Dawn Auby, CPIM
Membership
Cummins Filtration
608-873-4267
dawn.j.auby@cummins.com

Cathy Larson
Programs
GE Healthcare
608-221-1551 ext. 3862
catherine.larson@ge.com

John Vanden Heuvel
Member at Large
Wickcraft
608-244-9177
john@wickcraft.com

Dorothy Gillet, C.P.M.
Member at Large
De La Rue Cash Systems
920-262-3443
dorothy.gillet@us.delarue.com

Haibo Li
Student Chapter/Co-President
UW-Madison,
School of Business
hli27@wisc.edu

Jai-Hui Chen
*Student Chapter/
Co-President*
UW-Madison,
School of Business
608-263-2563
jchen28@wisc.edu

Step Up and Jump In!

One of Steven Covey's Seven Habits of Highly Effective People is to "sharpen the saw." My interpretation of this is to be sure you have the right tools for the job. Another interpretation might be to keep honing your skills, keep learning.

Currently, there is also a trend in research on aging to understand what happens to our mental abilities as we age. I do not mean the occasional forgetfulness of where you put your car keys or not being able to recall your work fax number. What I am referring to is the serious deterioration of the brain's capabilities as we age. It is recommended that we keep learning new things and keep active mentally in order to hold off these affects.

What are you doing to keep sharp? Do you continue to read for business or pleasure? Have you participated in a new hobby recently? When you spend time with your children are you learning what they learn? Visiting museums? Zoos?

One of the recent things I have been doing to keep sharp is Sudoku puzzles. These are logical fill-in-the-squares on a 9 x 9 grid using the numbers 1 – 9. It is not based on math (thank goodness) but rather recognizing patterns and logic.

The puzzles are everywhere – in airline magazines, the daily newspaper, handheld games and on-line. Recently the College of Engineering had an Expo Day and part of this was a Sudoku Challenge.

I challenge you to try a Sudoku puzzle and see how it goes, but be careful...you may become addicted! (I have to thank Kathy Smathers for turning me on to this puzzle and my new addiction!)

I also challenge you to continue to sharpen your saw and to keep learning – whether it be reading something outside of the field of operations, starting a new hobby, or taking a trip to the zoo. You already know that your Madison APICS organization can help you to sharpen the saw in many ways. So I urge you to take advantage of all we have to offer.

I look forward to seeing you at the May PDM which will be a fabulous time of fun, awards & recognition, and a great speaker.

Respectfully,

Carol A. Aspinwall
Madison APICS President

SCWI APICS Spring Seminar 2007

Lean Extended Enterprise: Tools and Methodologies

Presented By

Steve Boeder
Michael Kolinski

May 22, 2007
7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Holiday Inn – Janesville Conference Center

Steven M. Boeder is co-author of “The Lean Extended Enterprise-Moving Beyond the Four Walls to Value Stream Excellence”. Steve holds a BBA degree from the University of Wisconsin and a MBA from Edgewood College. He has also successfully completed Six Sigma Black Belt training. He has CPIM and CIRM certification from APICS and has served APICS in various capacities. He is a frequent instructor for the University of Wisconsin Madison - Executive Education and Grainger Business School for lean and P&IC courses.

Steve is a plant manager for the Traex division of Libbey Glass Inc., located in Dane, WI. At Traex he oversees all plant operations including purchasing, P&IC, warehousing, engineering, manufacturing, human resources, quality, and shipping. He also has management responsibility for a 350,000 sq ft Libbey Distribution Center located in Chicago, IL.

Michael Kolinski holds a bachelor’s degree in Industrial Engineering from the University of Wisconsin – Madison and has also received Lean certifications from the University of Michigan and the Institute for Lean Systems, Kentucky. He has also successfully completed Six Sigma Green Belt Certification through the University of Michigan.

Mike is the Lean Manager of the Traex division of Libbey Glass Inc. in Madison, WI and the West Chicago Distribution center. He is responsible for facilitating and leading lean initiatives, which include Value Stream Mapping, Kaizen events, Rapid Plant Assessments and lean training/development programs. He has utilized the lean concepts and tools in a variety of environments including manufacturing, distribution, and administrative functions.

Seminar Agenda

7:30 Registration

8:00 Welcome / Announcements / Kick-Off

8:30 Lean Extended Enterprise Overview

9:00 Lean 101 - PDCA Model

9:30 Value Stream Mapping (VSM) - VSM Video Overview

10:00 Constructing a VSM

11:00 Value Stream Mapping Exercise

Noon Break/Lunch

1:00 Kaizen Event Methodology: Pre-Event Activities

2:00 Kaizen Event Methodology: Conducting the Kaizen Event

3:00 Kaizen Event Methodology: Post-Event Activities

4:00 End of Event: Evaluation and Close

Seminar Fee:

Fee includes lunch, refreshments, and seminar.

Member $200

Non-Member $250

3 or more registrants (member or non-member) $175

Registration:

Please provide the following information:

1.Name(s)

2.Organization

3.Email Address

4.Method Of Payment

Method of payment accepted: Check-purchase order to follow/Check Enclosed/Bring Check to Seminar payable to SCWI-APICS

By Mail: APICS Seminar, c/o Chuck Sathre, 3924 Beacon Hill Drive, Janesville, WI 53546-2063

By Email: Vicki.Bull@Sanford.com

By Phone: Contact Vicki Bull-608-755-7583

APICS International Conference and Exposition

Date: October 21 - 23, 2007

Location: Denver, Colorado

It's a place to learn. It's a way to network. It's a time to celebrate. Be a part of the largest annual gathering of operations management professionals. Build your body of knowledge. Make new connections. Commemorate 50 years of APICS success. The 2007 APICS International Conference & Expo has everything you need to increase your knowledge, stay up to date on operations management trends, and see the latest in products and applications. Save $200 off your registration. Register today and reserve your special event tickets at www.apics.org

APICS and America's Second Harvest

The Nation's Food Bank Network is building a supply chain to put food on the tables of America's neediest families. Participate in the Supply Chain Contest.

It's so easy to change the direction of a hungry child's life, and you really can make a difference. When you receive your contest package in the mail, write your name, company, e-mail address, and message—memorable APICS moment, why you joined APICS, what you gained from APICS, and so forth—on the wristband. Then send your wristband and at least a $1 donation* to your local APICS chapter by October 8. Once collected from APICS Chapters, the supply chain will be displayed at the 2007 APICS International Conference & Expo. There are 13 million hungry children in our country. The more you can give, the more children we can help.

<http://www.apics.org/education/conference/referafriend.asp>

* No purchase necessary to enter

APICS Scholars Education Program

Scholar | Mentor | Donor | Coordinator

Be a Donor. You can make a difference in a student's career. You can make a difference in the operations management profession. You can make a difference.

Whether it's as an individual or as a company, make a donation to support the APICS Scholars Education Program. Your donation to the APICS Educational and Research Foundation is tax-deductible and will fund the Scholars Program. You can choose to sponsor an individual student or school, or simply make a donation to the program itself. A sponsorship requires a $1,000 donation, or select multiple sponsorships at $800 each. Complete the donation form and mail it along with your check to:

APICS Scholars Education Program
c/o E&R Foundation, Inc.
5301 Shawnee Road
Alexandria, VA 22312

If you are sponsoring a specific scholar or school, please indicate the names of the students or schools on the donation form. If you have any questions, please contact Eric D. Tulenson, CPIM, at erictulenson@bex.net.

APICS THE ASSOCIATION FOR OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT

APICS The Association for Operations Management is the global leader and premier source of the body of knowledge in operations management, including production, inventory, supply chain, materials management, purchasing, and logistics. Since 1957, individuals and companies have relied on APICS for its superior training, internationally recognized certifications, comprehensive resources, and worldwide network of accomplished industry professionals. To learn more about the APICS community, visit www.apics.org.